

An Example Worth Following.
The Country Club of Ware County was recently organized at Waycross, Ga., for the purpose of securing an organized movement for improvements, says the Good Roads Magazine. Each member of the club pledged himself to plant 20 trees of some sort so that they will take root this winter and have them ready for transplants along the public road closest to his home next fall. Among the members is Judge Warren Lott, chairman of the board of county commissioners, and he has promised that the county will have the trees planted next fall by the gang and replant those that die each year. It is figured that 200 trees will plant a mile on both sides of the road. John W. Greer of Waycross has been pushing the movement.

Listen

and remember the next time you suffer from pain—caused by damp weather—when your head nearly bursts from neuralgia—try Ballard's Snow Liniment. It will cure you. A prominent business man of Hempstead, Texas, writes: "I have used your liniment. Previous to using it I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism and Neuralgia. I am pleased to say that now I am free from these complaints. I am sure I owe this to your liniment." Sold by Eddy Drug Co.

Privets For Street Planting.

Out at Montebello, Cal., on at least two streets there is planted a species of Ligustrum or privet of a decidedly arborescent habit that makes an ideal street tree. In addition to the general points of excellence common to our best street trees, this privet has the desirable qualification of being easily and safely moved when of a considerable size with a comparatively small ball of soil. Trees of two to three inches in diameter of stem and a height of ten feet will not wilt, but readily take root and resume normal growth when moved with fifty pounds of soil. With a tree so easily handled we may have effective street tree alignment at the end of the first year after planting.

Growing Aches and Pains.

Mrs. Jessie Sumner, Bremond, Texas, writes, "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment in my family for three years. I would not be without it in the house. I have used it on my little girl for growing pains and aches in her knees. It cured her right away. I have also used it for frost bitten feet, with great success. It is the best liniment I ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Eddy Drug Co.

Beautify School Grounds.

Just at present is a good time for all interested to look over the local schoolyard and consider if it meets their ideals regarding beauty, shade protection, educational value, etc. If it does not, the time is ripe to "get busy" with others whose interest is equal to yours and try to ameliorate present conditions so that this piece of public property will no longer be a reproach to those in control.

A Village's "Hourly Nurse."

Any scheme that tends to benefit the inhabitants of a town is worthy of consideration, such as the following:

The village of Leicester, Mass., established an hourly nurse in February 1907. At a recent meeting of interested citizens the report of the work and the financial statement were so encouraging that the vote was unanimous to continue the services of the nurse another year, says the Boston Transcript. Her duties are to give skilled assistance to all classes throughout the village. In emergency she does night work, which experience is not expected. Making calls of surgical cases, obstetrics, daily attention to the sick and feeding who do not require the constant care of a nurse, are the directions to which her work chiefly lies. Contagious cases she does not attend. The nurse goes from house to house, spending an hour or more with her patients as the case needs, and each one pays from 10 to 30 cents an hour, according to ability, although the care is not denied to those unable to pay. A salary is assured the nurse, the money she receives from patients going to swell the funds of the association.

Notable Example.

Brookline, Mass., a "village" of 20,000 inhabitants, noted for its magnificient homes and still more for the extent and value of its public improvements, is a notable example of what may be accomplished in civic improvement. The same people are at the head of public affairs until death renders a change necessary. It is one instance where direct legislation and the referendum have worked to perfection. It has been a common occurrence for public officials to hold office continuously for from thirty to fifty years one man having been city clerk for just half a century.

Why Si Sighed.

"I wonder why Debow & Brown don't paint their store?" Si Jenkins sighed. "They'd do it sure if in the town. They took the proper sort of pride." Then Silas straightway went and mailed an order to a city store. And that's why D. & B. have failed. To please him on the painting score. —T. Rapp Jr.

CLEANUP ORDINANCE.

Scheme Adopted by a Park Commission in Los Angeles.

Many of our California cities and towns are adopting ordinances requiring vacant lots and muddy premises to be cleaned up, says the Los Angeles Times. In Elmhurst the audit trail of passing of such legislation is traced in the hands of the park commission which has sent out the following notice to property owners:

"A provision in the new cleaning up ordinance makes it the duty of the park commissioners to inspect the streets and report all such instances of muddy frontages, dirty vacant lots and other premises as would come under the provisions of the ordinance, copy of which is herewith enclosed to the superintendent of streets whose duty would be to serve legal notice to property holders.

"It is the opinion of this board that a simple reminder in the large majority of cases will be all that is necessary to secure the desired results; hence we take the liberty of calling your attention to the neglected condition of the frontage described, respectively requesting that prompt attention be given it that formal legal notices to the superintendent of streets may not be necessary."

Rural Delivery and Good Roads.

The annual report of the ninth assistant postmaster general states that at the close of the fiscal year there were 37,728 rural free delivery routes served by 37,582 carriers. During the year 2,312 new routes were established and 350 discontinued, leaving a net increase in operation of 13.2. The report pays considerable attention to the subject of road improvement. It is stated that, while ideal roads are not asked for, they still need to be properly drained and free from cuts and washouts. Adequate highway laws properly enforced are suggested.
